KUMON NATIONAL JUNIOR CLASSIC TEAM SELECTION

VJBL TEAM SELECTION

The following criteria will be used to assist in deciding which eight VJBL teams will be selected into the National Junior Classic from those nominated.

- The VJBL teams shall be ranked on their performance in the Victorian Championship (VC) Competition.
- Based on head-to-head, the top four teams in each VC pool will be calculated on the last Saturday in May using results for the first 9 rounds. Those teams will be eligible to nominate for participation in the Kumon National Junior Classic.
- The Classic Sub Committee will determine a selection point for the VJBL teams if the ladders from Round 9 can't be used.
- If a VJBL selected team consists of players who are also registered with the Country Championship winner, the player must nominate if they will participate with the VJBL team or the Country Championship winning team. This must accompany their expression of interest.
- If the player chooses to represent the Country Championship winner, the Classic Sub Committee will request the VJBL selected team provides correspondence within 14 days of receiving the expression of interest, explaining why they should still be allowed to participate. The Classic Sub Committee will review the explanation and reserves the right to refuse entry based on the fact the team entered is not substantially the same team that participated in the VJBL.
- If additional teams are required outside of the top four from VC, the VJBL Administration reserves the right to choose the team that they believe is most qualified.

JUNIOR COUNTRY CHAMPIONSHIPS SELECTION

The following criteria will be used to assist in deciding which Basketball Victoria Junior Country Championship winners will be selected into the Kumon National Junior Classic from those nominated.

Junior Country Championship winners not participating in the VJBL:

- If the Junior Country Championship winner isn't participating in the VJBL, they must provide the VJBL Administration with a team list of who will be attending the tournament with their expression of interest.
- If the Junior Country Championship winner consists of any player who is also registered with any VJBL team, the player must nominate if they will participate with the Junior Country Championship winner or the VJBL team. Confirmation of decision must accompany their expression of interest.
- If the player chooses to represent the VJBL team, the VJBL Administration will request the Junior Country Championship winner to provide correspondence within 14 days of receiving the expression of interest, explaining why they should still be allowed to participate. The Classic Sub Committee will review the explanation and reserves the right to refuse entry based on the fact the team entered is not substantially the same team that won the Junior Country Championship.

Junior Country Championship winner participating in the VJBL:

- If the Junior Country Championship winner currently plays in the VJBL and failed to qualify for VC they will not be invited to the Kumon National Junior Classic.
- If the Junior Country Championship winner currently plays in the VJBL and qualified for VC, but doesn't finish in the top 4 of their pool they may not be invited to the Kumon National Junior Classic.
- If the Junior Country Championship winner currently plays in the VJBL and doesn't meet the above criteria, the team may put in an appeal to the Classic Sub Committee for special selection. Appeals may include a player who has played in the Junior Country Championship winning team that doesn't participate in the VJBL and changes the dynamics of the team. In this case, documentation from Junior Country Championships will be viewed and the Classic Sub Committee will make their final decision.

The following criteria will be used to assist in deciding which Interstate and international teams will be selected into the Kumon National Junior Classic.

- Interstate teams will be selected as soon as possible after the closing date by the NJC selection committee, based on ladder positions from their championship season

International Teams

- Basketball Victoria may restrict the makeup of an international team nominating to ensure evenness of competition.
